

Wendy B. Frizzell

After walking with my Lord for more than 30 years, my relationship with Him grows stronger every day. He constantly amazes me with his power and creativity. Especially in my years of leading children's time, I have found that God is faithful and ready to share his words with me. I hope to inspire and encourage other women to walk closely with their Lord who loves them more than they can imagine through creative stories and illustrations.

Food for thought...

Have you ever squirted too much toothpaste out of the tube? Did you try to put it back?

Our words are the same way...once they leave our mouths we cannot take them back.

“Out of the same mouth come praise and cursing. My brothers and sisters, this should not be.” James 3:10. Be careful what you say...email...text...

“Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen!”

Ephesians 3:20-21

A small taste...

Cleaning Out

We had a challenging task placed before us in the spring of 2011. We bought a house and moved.

From that experience, I've decided that it would be useful to go through your house every few years and ask yourself, "If I were moving, would I take this with me or throw it away?"

I've found all sorts of STUFF that I wonder now what I was thinking when I decided to keep it. I have some latent pack rat tendencies. For instance, I found a box full of empty boxes...I'm sure there was some logical reason for keeping them, but now for the life of me, I cannot figure it out...

As I was praying about what to talk to you about today, the Lord laid on my heart that perhaps we should not only clean out our homes, but maybe our hearts and habits as well.

God's word needs to impact our hearts and lives daily. God's word is full of ways we can serve Him, honor Him and glorify Him. Let's be sure that we are keeping things out of our lives that would prevent us from being light and salt and yeast. God will use us if we will be available.

"Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says." James 1:22
God's word tells us to love Him with all our hearts, souls, minds and strength and to love others as ourselves. Let's start today putting his word into practice and cleaning out everything else that gets in the way.

Who is Wendy?

Wendy's joy and enthusiasm for the Lord come through in all her work. She will encourage your group through humor, personal anecdotes and Scriptural insights. She can relate to each group in a very personal way whether as keynote speaker, workshop leader, seminar presenter or retreat leader. Her experience in training and development, leading children's worship and other worship rallies, and speaking to persuade others to give their support to a cause gives her the ability to communicate with her audiences authentically.

*Wendy is consistently rated as one of our top 2 speakers at New Employee Orientation. She has a great presentation style and makes the information interesting and fun ~
Barbara Caskey,
Human Resources Coordinator*

*Wendy's children's sermons were thoughtful and challenging – even to the adults in the room. Sometimes they could have been the entire sermon~
Dr. Charles Dodson, Retired
Pastor The Woods Baptist Church*

Chat Topics

I will pray with you regarding the topics that the Lord wants us to share and can align them with a theme that you have already chosen. Below are some topics that I have shared in the past that are always useful and fun:

- Grown-up Lessons from Children's Time (see "a small taste")
- Communication – effective and efficient
- Quietness – the power of "down time"
- "Ordinary" women – God uses willing vessels; not perfect ones
- Friends – so many meanings but not always meaningful
- Time – Is there ever really enough?
- Balance – seeking His kingdom first
